Attendance Allowance Factsheet

May 2018

I have mesothelioma. Can I claim Attendance Allowance? Yes, you can claim Attendance Allowance if you:

- are aged 65 or over, and
- you are not claiming Disability Living Allowance or Personal Independence Payment.

The amount of benefit

The Higher Rate of Attendance Allowance should be awarded automatically. The carer can claim on behalf of the mesothelioma patient without the patient's knowledge.

How to claim

The first step is to ring the Attendance Allowance Helpline on 0800 731 0122.

Your claim will be registered on the day of the telephone call and the form will be sent to your home address or that of your carer. It needs to be returned within six weeks.

You should be able to claim under "Special Rules". If so, a DS1500 form will be completed by your GP, specialist nurse or hospital consultant. This form should be sent off with the Attendance Allowance claim form, and you will only need to complete the sections referring to the Special Rules.

Will my savings, income or earnings affect my claim for Attendance Allowance?

- Attendance Allowance can be paid on top of any amount of savings, income or earnings.
- It is non-taxable so is not required to be declared to the Inland Revenue.

Will Attendance Allowance affect my Pension Credit or Housing Benefit?

- Attendance Allowance will not affect your payments of Pension Credit, Housing Benefit or Council Tax Benefit.
- You may even be entitled to more of these benefits and you should therefore contact The Pension Service Helpline on 0345 6060265 and your local Council Benefits and Revenues Sections.

Benefit rates

Benefit rates are reviewed each year, normally in April. Information regarding current rates can be found at www.gov.uk or contact the Mesothelioma UK National Welfare Benefits Adviser (see below).
