

On Sunday 25th July 2010 Jo and her friend Suzie ran in the 'Down Tow Up Flow Half Marathon' in Windsor. Jo's Dad Clive was diagnosed with mesothelioma last year and she felt she would like to take part in this event to raise awareness about mesothelioma whilst supporting our charity. Clive and his granddaughters attended the day and this is what he has to say about his daughters' wonderful achievement.

Waiting on the finishing line with my two granddaughters waiting for my daughter Jo to finish was a wonderful feeling. As the first of the 800 runners in the half marathon started to cross the line, running from Windsor to Marlow along the Thames towpath the excitement and euphoria began to build up. There were three red kites circling in the sky above as we spotted Jo and her friend Suzie coming around the corner, and as they crossed the line you see the feeling of achievement on Jo's face having run her first half marathon. I felt I had run it with her, well done Jo, Suzie and everyone else!!!
